Form 8379

(Rev. November 2021) Department of the Treasury Internal Revenue Service

Injured Spouse Allocation

OMB No. 1545-0074

▶ Go to www.irs.gov/Form8379 for instructions and the latest information.

Attachment Sequence No. 104

Enter the following information exactly as it is shown on the tax return for which you are filing this form. The spouse's name and social security number shown first on that tax return must also be shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown first If injured spouse, check here ▶ First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown second If injured spouse, check here ▶ Check this box only if you want your refund issued in both names. Otherwise, separate refunds will be issued for each spouse, if applicable	Pai	rt I Should You File This Form? You must complete this par	t.	•
Yes, Go to line 3. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. 3 Did (or will) the IRS use the joint overpayment to pay any of the following legally enforceable past-due debt(s) owed only by yr spouse? See instructions. Federal tax * State income tax * State unemployment compensation * Child support Spousal support * Federal nonitax debt (such as a student loan) Yes, Go to line 4. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief in the instructions. Are you legally obligated to pay this past-due amount? Yes. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief in the instructions. No. Go to line 5a. Sa Were you a resident of a community property state at any time during the tax year entered on line 1? See instructions. Yes, Enter the name(s) of the community property state(s) Go to line 5b.	1	Enter the tax year for which you are filing this form ▶ Answ	er the following questions for th	at year.
No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. 3 Did (or will) the IRS use the joint overpayment to pay any of the following legally enforceable past-due debt(s) owed only by yr spouse? See instructions. *Federal tax * State income tax * State unemployment compensation * Child support *Federal notax * State unemployment compensation * Child support *Spousal support * Federal nortax debt (such as a student loan) Yes. Go to line 4. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief* in the instructions. Are you legally obligated to pay this past-due amount? Yes. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief* in the instructions. No. Go to line 5a. Were you a resident of a community property state at any time during the tax year entered on line 1? See instructions. Yes. Skip line 5b and go to line 6. If you answered "Yes" on line 5a, was your marriage recognized under the laws of the community property state(s)? See instructions. Yes. Skip lines 6 through 9. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 6. Did you make and report payments, such as federal income tax withholding or estimated tax payments? Yes. Skip lines 6 through 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 8. No. Skip line 8 and go to line 9. Did or will you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form.	2	Did you (or will you) file a joint return?	· · · · · · · ·
3 Did (or will) the IRS use the joint overpayment to pay any of the following legally enforceable past-due debt(s) owed only by yr spouse? See instructions. • Federal tax • State income tax • State unemployment compensation • Child support • Spousal support • Federal nontax debt (such as a student loan) — Yes. Go to line 4. Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief* in the instructions. 4 Are you legally obligated to pay this past-due amount? — Yes. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief* in the instructions. — No. Go to line 5a. 5a Were you a resident of a community property state at any time during the tax year entered on line 1? See instructions. — Yes. Enter the name(s) of the community property state(s) — Go to line 5b. If you answered "Yes" on line 5a, was your marriage recognized under the laws of the community property state(s)? See instructions. — Yes. Skip lines 6 through 9. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. — No. Go to line 6. Did you answered "Yes" on line 5a, was your say salaries, or self-employment income? — Yes. Skip lines 7 through 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. — No. Go to line 7. Did you have earned income, such as wages, salaries, or self-employment income? — Yes. Skip lines 8 and go to line 9. Bid for will you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. — Yes. Go to line 9. Did (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. — Yes. Go to line 9. Did (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. — Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of t		Yes. Go to line 3.
spouse? See instructions. Federal tax • State income tax • State unemployment compensation • Child support • Spousal support • Federal nontax debt (such as a student loan) Yes. Go to line 4. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief in the instructions. Are you legally obligated to pay this past-due amount? Yes. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief in the instructions. No. Go to line 5a. No. Go to line 5a. No. Skip line 5b and go to line 6. If you answered "Yes" on line 5a, was your marriage recognized under the laws of the community property state(s)? See instructions. Yes. Skip lines 6 through 9. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 5. If yes, Skip lines 6 through 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 6. If yes, Skip lines 6 through 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 8. No. Skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes, Skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes, Skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes, Skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes, Skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes, Skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes, Skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes, Skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes, Skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes, Skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes, Skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes, Skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes, Skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes, Skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes, Skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes, Skip line 8 and go to line 9. If ye			Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse.
Federal tax * State income tax * State unemployment compensation * Child support * Federal nontax debt (such as a student loan) Yes. Go to line 4. Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief* in the instructions. 4. Are you legally obligated to pay this past-due amount? Yes. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief* in the instructions. No. Go to line 5a. Swere you a resident of a community property state at any time during the tax year entered on line 1? See instructions. Yes. Enter the name(s) of the community property state(s) Go to line 5b. No. Skip line 5b and go to line 6. b If you answered "Yes" on line 5a, was your marriage recognized under the laws of the community property state(s)? See instructions. Yes. Skip lines 6 through 9. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 6. 6 Did you make and report payments, such as federal income tax withholding or estimated tax payments? Yes. Skip lines 7 through 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 7. 7 Did you have earned income, such as wages, salaries, or self-employment income? Yes. Skip line 8 and go to line 9. 8 Did (or will) you claim the earned income credit or additional child tax credit? Yes. Skip line 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 9. 9 Did (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. Yes. Skip line 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. First name, initial, and last name shown second on	3		ng legally enforceable past-due	debt(s) owed only by your
Spousal support → Federal nontax debt (such as a student loan) Yes. Go to line 4. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief in the instructions. 4. Are you legally obligated to pay this past-due amount? Yes. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief in the instructions. No. Go to line 5a. No. Go to line 5a. Were you a resident of a community property state at any time during the tax year entered on line 1? See instructions. Yes. Enter the name(s) of the community property state(s) Go to line 5b. No. Skip line 5b and go to line 6. If you answered "Yes" on line 5a, was your marriage recognized under the laws of the community property state(s)? See instructions. Yes. Skip lines 5 through 9. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 6. If you make and report payments, such as federal income tax withholding or estimated tax payments? Yes. Skip lines 7. No. Go to line 8. No. Skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes skip line 8 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Skip line 8 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Skip line 8 and go to line 9. If yes skip line 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Skip line 8 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Skip line 8 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Stop here. Do not file			on • Child support
No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief in the instructions. 4 Are you legally obligated to pay this past-due amount? Yes. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief in the instructions. No. Go to line 5a. Yes. Enter the name(s) of the community property state(s) Go to line 5b. No. Skip line 5b and go to line 6. If you answered "Yes" on line 5a, was your marriage recognized under the laws of the community property state(s)? See instructions. Yes. Skip lines 6 through 9. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 6. No. Go to line 6. Was the past of through 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 7. Yes. Skip lines 7 through 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 7. Yes. Skip lines 8 and go to line 9. Yes. Go to line 8. No. Skip line 8 and go to line 9. Yes. Go to line 9. Did (or will) you claim the earned income credit or additional child tax credit? Yes. Skip line 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 9. Did (or will) you claim the earned income credit or additional child tax credit? Yes. Go to line 10. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Pirst name, initial, and ast name shown first on the return Social security number shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown first below. If injured spouse, If applicable . If inju
Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief in the instructions. 4. Are you legally obligated to pay this past-due amount? — Yes. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief in the instructions. — No. Go to line 5a. Sa Were you a resident of a community property state at any time during the tax year entered on line 1? See instructions. — Yes. Enter the name(s) of the community property state(s) — Go to line 5b. If you answered "Yes" on line 5a, was your marriage recognized under the laws of the community property state(s)? See instructions. — Yes. Skip lines 6 through 9. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. — No. Go to line 6. If you make and report payments, such as federal income tax withholding or estimated tax payments? — Yes. Skip lines 7 through 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. — No. Go to line 7. Polid you have earned income, such as wages, salaries, or self-employment income? — Yes. Go to line 8. Polid (or will) you claim the earned income credit or additional child tax credit? — Yes. Go to line 9. Polid (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. — Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. — No. Go to line 9. Polid (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. — Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. — No. Stop lines 0. Polid (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. — Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. — No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. — First name, initial, and		Yes. Go to line 4.
spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief in the instructions. 4 Are you legally obligated to pay this past-due amount? Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief in the instructions. No. Go to line 5a. Sa Were you a resident of a community property state at any time during the tax year entered on line 1? See instructions. Yes. Enter the name(s) of the community property state(s) Go to line 5b. No. Skip line 5b and go to line 6. If you answered "Yes" on line 5a, was your marriage recognized under the laws of the community property state(s)? See instructions. Yes. Skip lines 6 through 9. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 6. Did you make and report payments, such as federal income tax withholding or estimated tax payments? Yes. Skip lines 7 through 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 7. Did you have earned income, such as wages, salaries, or self-employment income? Yes. Go to line 8. No. Skip line 8 and go to line 9. No. Skip line 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 9. Yes. Go to line 9. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. In the following information exactly as it is shown on the tax return for which you are filling this form. The spouse's name and social security number shown first on the return Scial security number shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Scial security number shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Scial security number shown first below. The spouse's name and social security number shown first on that tax return must also be shown first below. The first name, initial, and last name shown first on the		■ No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse	e.
Yes. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief in the instructions. No. Go to line 5a. Sa Were you a resident of a community property state at any time during the tax year entered on line 1? See instructions. Yes. Enter the name(s) of the community property state(s) Go to line 5b. No. Skip line 5b and go to line 6. If you answered "Yes" on line 5a, was your marriage recognized under the laws of the community property state(s)? See instructions. Yes. Skip lines 6 through 9. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 6. Did you make and report payments, such as federal income tax withholding or estimated tax payments? Yes. Skip lines 7 through 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 7. Did you have earned income, such as wages, salaries, or self-employment income? Yes. Go to line 8. No. Skip line 8 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 9. Did (or will) you claim the earned income credit or additional child tax credit? Yes. Skip line 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 9. Did (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. Yes. Go to line 9. Did (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. So to the following information exactly as it is shown on the tax return for which you are filling this form. The spouse's name and social security number shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown first other each spouse, check here >		Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief in the
Note: If the past-due amount is for a federal tax liability owed by both you and your spouse, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief in the instructions. No. Go to line 5a. Sa Were you a resident of a community property state at any time during the tax year entered on line 1? See instructions. Yes. Enter the name(s) of the community property state(s) Go to line 5b. No. Skip line 5b and go to line 6. If you answered "Yes" on line 5a, was your marriage recognized under the laws of the community property state(s)? See instructions. Yes. Skip lines 6 through 9. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 6. If you make and report payments, such as federal income tax withholding or estimated tax payments? Yes. Skip lines 7 through 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 7. If you have earned income, such as wages, salaries, or self-employment income? Yes. Skip line 8 and go to line 9. No. Skip line 8 and go to line 9. No. Go to line 9. If you claim the earned income credit or additional child tax credit? Yes. Skip line 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 9. If you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Pirst name, initial, and last name shown first on the return First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown first If injured spouse, check here P First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown first If injured spouse, check here P First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown first If injured spouse, check here P First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown first If injured spouse, check here P	4	Are you legally obligated to pay this past-due amount?
spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief in the instructions. No. Go to line 5a. 5a Were you a resident of a community property state at any time during the tax year entered on line 1? See instructions. Yes. Enter the name(s) of the community property state(s) Go to line 5b. No. Skip line 5b and go to line 6. If you answered "Yes" on line 5a, was your marriage recognized under the laws of the community property state(s)? See instructions. Yes. Skip lines 6 through 9. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 6. If you make and report payments, such as federal income tax withholding or estimated tax payments? Yes. Skip lines 7 through 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 7. Did you have earned income, such as wages, salaries, or self-employment income? Yes. Go to line 8. No. Skip line 8 and go to line 9. Bid (or will) you claim the earned income credit or additional child tax credit? Yes. Skip line 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 9. Did (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Part III Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Enter the following information exactly as it is shown on the tax return for which you are filing this form. The spouse's name and social security number shown first on that tax return must also be shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown first on the return social security number shown second on the return social security number shown first on the return social security number		☐ Yes. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse	e.
Sa Were you a resident of a community property state at any time during the tax year entered on line 1? See instructions. Yes. Enter the name(s) of the community property state(s) Go to line 5b. No. Skip line 5b and go to line 6. b If you answered "Yes" on line 5a, was your marriage recognized under the laws of the community property state(s)? See instructions. Yes. Skip lines 6 through 9. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 6. 6 Did you make and report payments, such as federal income tax withholding or estimated tax payments? Yes. Skip lines 7 through 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 7. 7 Did you have earned income, such as wages, salaries, or self-employment income? Yes. Go to line 8. No. Skip line 8 and go to line 9. 8 Did (or will) you claim the earned income credit or additional child tax credit? Yes. Skip line 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 9. 9 Did (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. 2art III Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed 10 Enter the following information exactly as it is shown on the tax return must also be shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown second If flighred spouse, check here ▶ ☐ First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown second If flighred spouse, check here ▶ ☐ 11 Check this box only if you want your refund issued in both names. Otherwise, separate refunds will be issued for each spouse, if applicable		spouse relief for the year to which the joint overpayment was (or will be) applied. See Innocent Spouse Relief in the instructions.
Yes. Enter the name(s) of the community property state(s) Go to line 5b. No. Skip line 5b and go to line 6. b If you answered "Yes" on line 5a, was your marriage recognized under the laws of the community property state(s)? See instructions. Yes. Skip lines 6 through 9. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 6. 6 Did you make and report payments, such as federal income tax withholding or estimated tax payments? Yes. Skip lines 7 through 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 7. 7 Did you have earned income, such as wages, salaries, or self-employment income? Yes. Go to line 8. No. Skip line 8 and go to line 9. 8 Did (or will) you claim the earned income credit or additional child tax credit? Yes. Skip line 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 9. 9 Did (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. 2 Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed 10 Enter the following information exactly as it is shown on the tax return for which you are filling this form. The spouse's name and social security number shown first on that tax return must also be shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown second If injured spouse, check here ▶ First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown second If injured spouse, check here ▶ First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown second If injured spouse, check here ▶ First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown second If injured spouse, check here ▶ First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown first Social security number	5a		he tax vear entered on line 1? S	ee instructions.
Go to line 5b. No. Skip line 5b and go to line 6. b If you answered "Yes" on line 5a, was your marriage recognized under the laws of the community property state(s)? See instructions. Yes. Skip lines 6 through 9. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 6. 6 Did you make and report payments, such as federal income tax withholding or estimated tax payments? Yes. Skip lines 7 through 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 7. 7 Did you have earned income, such as wages, salaries, or self-employment income? Yes. Go to line 8. No. Skip line 8 and go to line 9. 8 Did (or will) you claim the earned income credit or additional child tax credit? Yes. Skip line 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 9. 9 Did (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Part II Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed 10 Enter the following information exactly as it is shown on the tax return must also be shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown first below. The spouse's name and social security number shown first on that tax return must also be shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown first below. The spouse's name and social security number shown first on the return social secu			,
b If you answered "Yes" on line 5a, was your marriage recognized under the laws of the community property state(s)? See instructions.		.,
instructions. Yes. Skip lines 6 through 9. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 6. Did you make and report payments, such as federal income tax withholding or estimated tax payments? Yes. Skip lines 7 through 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 7. Did you have earned income, such as wages, salaries, or self-employment income? Yes. Go to line 8. No. Skip line 8 and go to line 9. Did (or will) you claim the earned income credit or additional child tax credit? Yes. Skip line 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 9. Did (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Part II Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed The spouse's name and social security number shown first on that tax return must also be shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown second of the return if injured spouse, check here beck here spouse, if applicable		No. Skip line 5b and go to line 6.
Yes. Skip lines 6 through 9. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 6. Did you make and report payments, such as federal income tax withholding or estimated tax payments? Yes. Skip lines 7 through 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 7. No. Go to line 7. To Did you have earned income, such as wages, salaries, or self-employment income? Yes. Go to line 8. No. Skip line 8 and go to line 9. Did (or will) you claim the earned income credit or additional child tax credit? Yes. Skip line 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 9. Did (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Part II	b	If you answered "Yes" on line 5a, was your marriage recognized under	the laws of the community prop	erty state(s)? See
No. Go to line 6. 6 Did you make and report payments, such as federal income tax withholding or estimated tax payments? Yes. Skip lines 7 through 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 7. 7 Did you have earned income, such as wages, salaries, or self-employment income? Yes. Go to line 8. No. Skip line 8 and go to line 9. 8 Did (or will) you claim the earned income credit or additional child tax credit? Yes. Skip line 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 9. 9 Did (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed O Enter the following information exactly as it is shown on the tax return for which you are filling this form. The spouse's name and social security number shown first on that tax return must also be shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown second If injured spouse, check here ▶ First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown second If injured spouse, check here ▶ Check this box only if you want your refund issued in both names. Otherwise, separate refunds will be issued for each spouse, if applicable
6 Did you make and report payments, such as federal income tax withholding or estimated tax payments?			this form.
Yes. Skip lines 7 through 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 7. 7 Did you have earned income, such as wages, salaries, or self-employment income? Yes. Go to line 8. No. Skip line 8 and go to line 9. 8 Did (or will) you claim the earned income credit or additional child tax credit? Yes. Skip line 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 9. 9 Did (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse.	_			•
No. Go to line 7. 7 Did you have earned income, such as wages, salaries, or self-employment income? Yes. Go to line 8. No. Skip line 8 and go to line 9. 8 Did (or will) you claim the earned income credit or additional child tax credit? Yes. Skip line 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 9. 9 Did (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Part II Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed 10 Enter the following information exactly as it is shown on the tax return for which you are filing this form. The spouse's name and social security number shown first on that tax return must also be shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown first other kence here below check here below. First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown second lift injured spouse, check here below. 11 Check this box only if you want your refund issued in both names. Otherwise, separate refunds will be issued for each spouse, if applicable Infinity of pour pour joint return? Yes 12 Do you want any injured spouse refund mailed to an address different from the one on your joint return?	6			S?
7 Did you have earned income, such as wages, salaries, or self-employment income?			of this form.
Yes. Go to line 8. No. Skip line 8 and go to line 9.	7		ent income?
No. Skip line 8 and go to line 9. 8 Did (or will) you claim the earned income credit or additional child tax credit? Yes. Skip line 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 9. 9 Did (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Part II Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed 10 Enter the following information exactly as it is shown on the tax return for which you are filling this form. The spouse's name and social security number shown first on that tax return must also be shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown first if injured spouse, check here ▶ ☐ First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown second if injured spouse, check here ▶ ☐ 11 Check this box only if you want your refund issued in both names. Otherwise, separate refunds will be issued for each spouse, if applicable	•		ient income:
B Did (or will) you claim the earned income credit or additional child tax credit? Yes. Skip line 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 9. Did (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Part II Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Description Enter the following information exactly as it is shown on the tax return for which you are filling this form. The spouse's name and social security number shown first on that tax return must also be shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown first if injured spouse, check here ▶ First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown second if injured spouse, check here ▶ II Check this box only if you want your refund issued in both names. Otherwise, separate refunds will be issued for each spouse, if applicable
Yes. Skip line 9 and go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Go to line 9. 9 Did (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Inter the following information exactly as it is shown on the tax return for which you are filing this form. The spouse's name and social security number shown first on that tax return must also be shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown first If injured spouse, check here ▶ This name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown second If injured spouse, check here ▶ Check this box only if you want your refund issued in both names. Otherwise, separate refunds will be issued for each spouse, if applicable	8		redit?
No. Go to line 9. Did (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions. Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Part II
Yes. Go to Part II and complete the rest of this form. No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Information exactly as it is shown on the tax return for which you are filing this form. The spouse's name and social security number shown first on that tax return must also be shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown first If injured spouse, check here ▶ First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown second If injured spouse, check here ▶ Check this box only if you want your refund issued in both names. Otherwise, separate refunds will be issued for each spouse, if applicable Do you want any injured spouse refund mailed to an address different from the one on your joint return? Yes If "Yes," enter the address. If a foreign address, see instructions.
No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse. Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed	9	Did (or will) you claim a refundable tax credit? See instructions.
Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Information About the Joint Return for Which This Form Is Filed Information About the Joint Return for Which Year Filed Information About the Joint Return for Which You are filing this form. Information About This Form Is Filed Information About This Form I		·
Enter the following information exactly as it is shown on the tax return for which you are filing this form. The spouse's name and social security number shown first on that tax return must also be shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown first If injured spouse, check here ▶ First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown second If injured spouse, check here ▶ Check this box only if you want your refund issued in both names. Otherwise, separate refunds will be issued for each spouse, if applicable		No. Stop here. Do not file this form. You are not an injured spouse	э.
Enter the following information exactly as it is shown on the tax return for which you are filing this form. The spouse's name and social security number shown first on that tax return must also be shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown first If injured spouse, check here ▶ First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown second If injured spouse, check here ▶ Check this box only if you want your refund issued in both names. Otherwise, separate refunds will be issued for each spouse, if applicable) o r	wt III Information About the Joint Deturn for Which This For	m la Eilad
The spouse's name and social security number shown first on that tax return must also be shown first below. First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown first If injured spouse, check here ▶ First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown second If injured spouse, check here ▶ Check this box only if you want your refund issued in both names. Otherwise, separate refunds will be issued for each spouse, if applicable
First name, initial, and last name shown first on the return Social security number shown first If injured spouse, check here ▶ First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown second If injured spouse, check here ▶ Check this box only if you want your refund issued in both names. Otherwise, separate refunds will be issued for each spouse, if applicable	U
First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return Social security number shown second If injured spouse, check here ▶ Check this box only if you want your refund issued in both names. Otherwise, separate refunds will be issued for each spouse, if applicable
Check this box only if you want your refund issued in both names. Otherwise, separate refunds will be issued for each spouse, if applicable			,
Check this box only if you want your refund issued in both names. Otherwise, separate refunds will be issued for each spouse, if applicable		First name, initial, and last name shown second on the return	Social security number shown second
spouse, if applicable				check here ▶
Do you want any injured spouse refund mailed to an address different from the one on your joint return? Yes If "Yes," enter the address. If a foreign address, see instructions.	1
If "Yes," enter the address. If a foreign address, see instructions.		ouse, if applicable
If "Yes," enter the address. If a foreign address, see instructions.
Number and street City, town or post office, state, and ZIP code	12
		Number and street City, town or post offi	mber and street City, town or post office, state, and ZIP code

Cat. No. 62474Q

Form 8379 (Rev. 11-2021) Page 2

Part I	II All	ocati	on Between Spouses of Item	s on the Joint R	eturn. See the separa	ate Forn	n 8379 in:	structions	for Part III.
			Allocated Items		(a) Amount shown	(b) /	Allocated	to (c	Allocated to
		(Co	lumn (a) must equal columns (b)	+ (c))	on joint return	inju	red spous	e	other spouse
13 Ir	ncome:	a.	Income reported on Form(s) W-	-2
		b.	All other income
14 A	Adjustm	ents t	to income
15 S	Standar	d ded	uction or itemized deductions
16 N	lonrefu	ndabl	e credits
17 F	Refunda	able cr	redits (do not include any earnec	l income credit)
18 C	Other ta	xes
		_
19 F	ederal	incom	ne tax withheld
00 5
	aymen		huma. Camandata thia mant amb	if and filling F	aure 0070 by the elf o
Part I	v s	igna	ture. Complete this part only	ir you are filing F	orm 8379 by itself a	and no	t with yo	ur tax rei	urn.
			rjury, I declare that I have examined
knowlec		are tr	rue, correct, and complete. Declarat	ion of preparer (other	er than taxpayer) is base	ed on a	i iniormatio	on or which	i preparer nas any
Keep a copy of this form for		Injured	spouse's signature			Date		Phone nu
		Injured Spouse's signature			Date		Thore number
Paid Preparer Use Only		Print/Type preparer's name Preparer's signature		Date				□ PTIN
							Check if self-employed
		Eirm'o n	nama k				Eirm'o EIN		ea
		Firm's name ► Firm's address ►				Firm's EIN ▶
		Filli 5 audiess ▶			FIIOTIE 110.	Phone no. Form 8379 (Rev. 11-2021
								1 01111	,